All Agents and the Game Master communcate only through the communication server. The messages are encoded in the xml file format. Agents and the Game Master are autonomous applications, but they use a common module which contains the definitions of the TaskArea, GoalArea, Goal and Piece.